

Curriculum vitae of Tsuyoshi HOSOYA

Full name: Dr Tsuyoshi HOSOYA

Date of Birth: 1963. Dec. 19.

Gender: Male

Nationality: Japan

Present position: Head, division of Fungi and Algae Research, Dept. of Botany, the National Science Museum.

Present work address: Amakubo 4-1-1, Tsukuba, Ibaraki, 305-0005 JAPAN

TEL +81-29-853-8973

FAX +81-29-853-8401

EMAIL hosoya@kahaku.go.jp

Academic qualifications:

BSc, University of Tsukuba (1986)

MSc, University of Tsukuba (1988)

PhD, University of Tsukuba (1999) “Floristic and taxonomic study on the family Hyaloscyphaceae (Leotiales, Discomycetes) in Japan”

Honours/distinctions/membership of societies, institutions, committees:

Managing editor, the Mycological Society of Japan (2003-2004)

Editor, the Mycological Society of Japan (2004-2008, 2011-)

Trustee (in charge of treasurer), the Mycological Society of Japan (2009-2010)

Trustee (in charge of public relations and education), the Mycological Society of Japan
(2008-2009; 2013-)

Member: The Mycological Society of Japan, Mycological Society of America, British Mycological Society, The Japanese Society for Plant Systematics.

Professional positions held: (years, position, institution, activity)

1988-2001 Researcher, Sankyo Co., Ltd. (pharmaceutical company).

2001-2004   Manager, Strategic Product Portfolio Department, Sankyo Co., Ltd.
2004-2008   Chief curator, Dept. of Botany, the National Science Museum.
2008-        Head, division of Fungi and Algae Research, Dept. of Botany, the National Science Museum.

Present research/professional speciality:

1. Systematics and biology of discomycetes (cup fungi), in particular the family Hyaloscyphaceae.
2. Inventory of discomycetes in Japan.
3. Databasing & Curation of fungal specimens in TNS.
4. Discovery research for bioactive metabolites from underutilized fungal resources.
5. Fungi-Plant interrelationships.